

“It’s always the same ones who pay,
For their tax holidays!!”

DEMONSTRATION

Wednesday January 30th

at 11:30AM

Corner of McGill College
and Sherbrook

Montreal (metro McGill)

Organised by the Coalition Opposed to User Fees and the Privatisation of Public Services

“It’s always the same ones who pay,
For their tax holidays!!”

DEMONSTRATION

Wednesday January 30th

at 11:30AM

Corner of McGill College
and Sherbrook

Montreal (metro McGill)

Organised by the Coalition Opposed to User Fees and the Privatisation of Public Services

Let's demonstrate against this budget that benefits high finance!

Last year more than 50,000 families were cut off by Hydro-Québec. Despite this, the Parti Québécois has decided to go ahead with the plan put forward by the liberal government to increase hydro rates. Isn't it stunning to see that even after the largest mobilisation in many years the new government hasn't figured out that we are demanding a Quebec that is just and progressive? Instead the government is backtracking on almost every promise it has made. For example, they are not abolishing the health tax, they are not abolishing the hydro rate increases, and they are not increasing provincial revenue from mining companies. Instead of implementing their electoral promises, the Marois government has decided to sell us yet another liberal budget full of cut-backs and regressive fiscal measures.

Last spring taught us one thing— popular movements lead to concrete victories. The single promise the Parti Québécois has respected is its commitment to abolish the increase in tuition fees. It seems obvious to us that there is only one way to make the government backtrack on its decision to increase hydro rates, to maintain the health tax and to impose indexation on tuition fees—we must take to the streets! That is why the Coalition Opposed to User Fees and the Privatisation of Public Services invites you to come remind the Parti Québécois of its election promises. Let's meet in front of Pauline Marois' office, on the corner of McGill and Sherbrooke on Wednesday, January 30th, at 11:30 am! A soup will be served at the end of the demonstration.

Let's demonstrate against this budget that benefits high finance!

Last year more than 50,000 families were cut off by Hydro-Québec. Despite this, the Parti Québécois has decided to go ahead with the plan put forward by the liberal government to increase hydro rates. Isn't it stunning to see that even after the largest mobilisation in many years the new government hasn't figured out that we are demanding a Quebec that is just and progressive? Instead the government is backtracking on almost every promise it has made. For example, they are not abolishing the health tax, they are not abolishing the hydro rate increases, and they are not increasing provincial revenue from mining companies. Instead of implementing their electoral promises, the Marois government has decided to sell us yet another liberal budget full of cut-backs and regressive fiscal measures.

Last spring taught us one thing— popular movements lead to concrete victories. The single promise the Parti Québécois has respected is its commitment to abolish the increase in tuition fees. It seems obvious to us that there is only one way to make the government backtrack on its decision to increase hydro rates, to maintain the health tax and to impose indexation on tuition fees—we must take to the streets! That is why the Coalition Opposed to User Fees and the Privatisation of Public Services invites you to come remind the Parti Québécois of its election promises. Let's meet in front of Pauline Marois' office, on the corner of McGill and Sherbrooke on Wednesday, January 30th, at 11:30 am! A soup will be served at the end of the demonstration.